Tuesday, 17/09/2024 | EACMFS SPECIAL EVENT - CONGRESS WELCOME

Do not miss the opportunity to join us at the EACMFS Special Charity Event

EACMFS will organize a very special event at the Auditorium La Nuvola, designed by the visionary architect Massimiliano Fuksas.

The Auditorium La Nuvola is not included in the EACMFS Congress facilities and it has a separate entrance.

This will be a unique opportunity to see and discover the heart of The Nuvola, during a very special ceremony with plenty of surprises, as the City of Rome wants to return the warm hospitality extended to all our members, through an event performed by the Navy Band.

When: 17/09/2024 from 18:30 to 20:15 pm, followed by the President's Welcome Reception

Where: Auditorium La Nuvola

Dress-code: Business dress

Wednesday, 18/09/2024 | “MADE IN ITALY” EVENT

Located at the the gates of the Vatican, the Monumental Complex Santo Spirito in Saxia stands on the ruins of the Schola Saxonum founded by Pope Innocent III. Once a hospital and refuge for the poor and pilgrims, it is considered the largest and oldest hospital in Europe. A splendid building complex of irresistible charm and inestimable historical, artistic, scientific and cultural value. Its strong evocative power, which finds its peak in the majestic beauty of the Corsie Sistine, is based precisely on the original vocation and function of welcoming and caring for people that this place has carried out and handed down over the centuries.

Beauty, culture and above all functionality, this is what this splendid location offers, the best place to reproduce the Made in Italy excellence. A kind of “mini Expo” spread through gastronomy and wine corners, projections, vintage car exhibition, etc...

Don't miss the authentic Made in Italy experience, only for real connoisseurs...

When: 18/09/2024 at 8:00 pm

Where: Monumental Complex Santo Spirito in Saxia
Corsie Sistine. Borgo S. Spirito - 00193 Roma

Thursday, 19/09/2024 | GALA DINNER

The EACMFS 2024 Gala Dinner will be held at the Palazzo Colonna – Cardinal Colonna Gallery. The Cardinal Colonna Gallery is the most impressive and majestic historical location in the center of Rome, residence of great charm and rare beauty.

Its construction began in the fourteenth century by the Colonna family and lasted for five centuries leading the overlapping of different architectural styles, interiors and exteriors.

Throughout the 1600s, the Palace took the form of a large Baroque palace and relied on architects and artists of great skill and reputation, such as Gian Lorenzo Bernini, Carlo Fontana, Paolo Schor and many others.

Private Walk Through Colonna Gallery: Get the chance to have an exclusive private close-door visit of one of the most magnificent examples of Roman Baroque architecture, located in the very heart of Rome.

Those who decide to buy the ticket for the museum visit will be welcome to reach the Hall dedicated to the Gala Dinner, walking through Galleria Colonna. A unique and immersive experience developed for 76 metres distributed in several halls, serving as the stunning repository for an impressive collection of works of art, with paintings, sculptures and furnishings from the 14th to the 18th century.

The private visit will give the chance to admire masterpieces of absolute excellence created by the greatest Italian and international artists. Among others, Pinturicchio, Cosmè Tura, Annibale Carracci, Guido Reni, Tintoretto, Salvator Rosa, Bronzino, Guercino, Veronese and Vanvitelli.
