EUSSER Young Researcher Award 2018

We are pleased to announce that during the EUSSE2018 Symposium of the SECEC-ESSSE Congress, EUSSE and JOSPT will present an award to an outstanding young researcher.

The EUSSE Young Researcher Award 2018 has been designed to recognize outstanding young scientists and researchers in Europe who have made significant contributions in the field of shoulder and/or elbow rehabilitation. The prize is a check for €1000 Euros and is provided by the Journal of Orthopaedic & Sports Physical Therapy. The EUSSE Scientific Committee will evaluate the applications and select three nominees before August 15th. Each nominee will receive a free registration to the EUSSE Symposium on September 21st and 22nd in Geneva and a free ticket for the gala dinner on Friday September 21st.

Entry Requirements:

1. To be eligible for this award, the researcher is either a PhD student or junior researcher who has finalized his/her PhD thesis within the past five years preceding the conference.
2. The researcher should work in a European country (understood in the geographic sense as defined by Council of Europe's membership rules), but is not required to have a European nationality.
3. Be the first author and stated as contact person for the publication submitted.
4. The content of the paper is shoulder and/or elbow related.
5. Papers already submitted for the SECEC-ESSSE congress can also be submitted for the young researcher award.
6. EUSSE committee members are excluded from participating for this award.
7. The application should be in English, and doesn't have to be already published.
8. When selected among the top three nominees, the applicant should be willing to give a poster presentation at the EUSSE Symposium during the SECEC-ESSSE congress.

The deadline for applications for the Young Researcher Award is Friday June 29th, 2018. Applications received after this date will not be considered. For any additional questions please contact info@euser.org.
