

32nd ESTS MEETING

26 - 28 MAY 2024 • BARCELONA, SPAIN

“Barcelona 2024 - ESTS, more than a Society!”

LUNCH SYMPOSIA SESSIONS - SUNDAY 26 MAY

Moderator: Prof. Marcelo Jimenez, Spain

The evolution of Segmentectomy

Prof. Peter Licht, Denmark

Segmentectomy with 3D reconstruction

Mr. Alessandro Brunelli, UK

12:00-13:00h
Room 5

OPTIMIZING POSTOPERATIVE CARE-A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

The focus of this session would be to discuss real world and current protocols for caring for postoperative patients in order to maximize the benefits of minimally invasive thoracic surgery.

Moderators: Stephen Cassivi (Rochester, Minnesota, USA) and Agathe Seguin Givelet (Paris, France)

12:00-13:00h
Room 8

12.00-12.05h Introduction

12.05-12.15h EUROPE

Ilies Bouabdallah (Marseille, France)

Speaking about the protocols and practices that his team has developed to make the most of the minimally invasive experience as well as perioperative ERAS that he has set up in his institution.

12.15-12.25h NORTH AMERICA

Sebastien Gilbert (Ottawa, Canada)

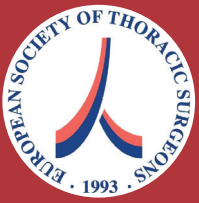

Speaking to the issue of optimizing perioperative care and the initiatives that he has led in better understanding the role of chest drains

12.25-12.35h ASIA

Kenji Suzuki (Kyoto, Japan)

Speaking to the experience in Asia with maximizing the benefits of minimally invasive thoracic surgery and ERAS in the context of his region of the world.

12.35-12.45h Moderated Panel Discussion / Audience Questions

32nd ESTS MEETING

26 - 28 MAY 2024 • BARCELONA, SPAIN

“Barcelona 2024 - ESTS, more than a Society!”

LUNCH SYMPOSIA SESSIONS - SUNDAY 26 MAY

Johnson & Johnson
MedTech

12:00-13:00h
Room 3

HCP AND PATIENT PERSPECTIVE: OPTIMIZING SURGICAL OUTCOMES THROUGH COLLABORATION ACROSS THE TREATMENT CONTINUUM

Moderators: G. Casali & Cecilia Pompili

Will be participating in the discussion:

Mara Antonoff, thoracic surgeon
Enriqueta Felip, medical oncologist
Merel Hennink, patient advocate
M. Quist, physiotherapist

Panelist

- Mara Antonoff: Associate Professor, Thoracic and Cardiovascular Surgery at MD Anderson Cancer Center Bellaire, Texas, United States
- G. Casali: Senior Director Medical Affairs J&J MedTech
- Enriqueta Felip: Section in Chief, Medical Oncology Department, Director Thoracic Oncology Unit Vall d'Hebron University Hospital
- Merel Hennink: Patient Advocate, LuCE Lung Cancer Europe
- C. Pompili: Associate Professor in Psychosocial Oncology Hull University Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
- M. Quist: Associate Professor, Department of Clinical Medicine Rigshospitalet, University of Copenhagen

SIEMENS
Healthineers

12:00-13:00h
Room 4

CUTTING-EDGE IMAGING TRANSFORMING THORACIC SURGERY

Challenges in minimal invasive thoracic surgery - role of intraoperative imaging
Dr. Francesco Zaraca, Vascular and Thoracic Surgery, Bolzano Central Hospital, Italy

Implication of lung cancer screening on therapy – role of hybrid OR
Dr. Marco Mammana, Thoracic Surgery, University Hospital of Padua, Italy

Image-guided robotic bronchoscopy with portable CBCT – First UK experience
Dr. Tom Routledge, Thoracic Surgery, London Bridge Hospital, UK